

Folktale Productions is excited to present Storyteller

Randel McGee

Ventriloquist • Author • Artist • Instructor • Entertainer

“Randel McGee & Groark” are an internationally acclaimed comedy storytelling duo! Their shows are a lively combination of fast-paced comedy, hilarious storytelling, and memorable melodies that literally have people laughing for days!

Randel also masterfully brings to life world famous author Hans Christian Andersen and other personalities at storytelling festivals and cultural events around the USA and internationally. He performs at schools, libraries, museums, conferences and churches. He specializes in tales of motivation, character education, literacy and cultural diversity. Randel expertly engages his audiences with stories of humor, humility, power, and passion.

He has contributed to two award-winning DVD series on character education for elementary school children, as well as written a multi-book series on paper crafts for kids. Randel is also a popular workshop director on the arts of puppetry, ventriloquism, storytelling, paper crafts, and techniques to effectively integrating performing arts into the Common Core Standards.

Randel McGee amazed and delighted the audiences at the 2013 Three Rivers Storytelling Festival ... Whether he was donning his elegant 19th century attire as Hans Christian Andersen, weaving our favorite fairy tales all the while creating intricate paper cuttings or trying to keep his playful friend Groark the dragon from taking over the stage, Randel kept our audiences spellbound and laughing 'til our sides hurt!
